Honorable Virginia E. Jenckes,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mrs. Jenckes:

We are approaching the end of the activities of the Seventy-fifth Congress. You are now serving your third term in the House. I feel justified in giving to you an expression of the great satisfaction with which I have observed your career in the House.

You have been most diligent in the performance of your duties as a Representative; you have shown your ability to participate in debates from the Floor; you have been loyal to the major objectives of the Democratic administration and have won and deserved the respect and good will of your colleagues. In addition to these things, you have been faithful and effective in looking after the particular interest of your own congressional district and I am confident that in your future service in the House you will continue to reflect the excellent record you have made here.

With very best wishes, I am

Yours sincerely,

Wm. B. Bankhead
